

What Parents Should Know Before Renting a Limo or Party Bus For Your Teen

North City Prevention Coalition (NCPC)

North City Prevention Coalition (NCPC)

is a program of SAY San Diego and funded by the County of San Diego Health and Human Services Agency, Alcohol and Drug Services.

Under the auspices of the Binge & Underage Drinking Social Access Workgroup, we work to change social norms around youth access to alcohol through:

- recruiting strategic partners
- organizing community groups
- building youth leadership
- media advocacy

- Make sure you choose a transportation company that is legitimate.
  - ✓ Visit National Limousine Assn website: www.nlaride.com to check if a company is in good standing and is licensed and insured.
  - ✓ Make sure the company is certified with the CHP and Department of Transportation.
  - ✓ All drivers enrolled in random drug testing.
  - ✓ All drivers enrolled in DMV pull program which sends copies of drivers records to the company.
  - ✓ No vehicle is loaded over its safe and legal capacity.
  - ✓ Visit the company's facility—this way you can ensure that they are not a front for another company that may not be licensed or in good standing
- Ask to see their alcohol & drug policy. It should include:
  - ✓ All juveniles and adults sign the contract.
  - ✓ A responsible adult at the point of pick up.
  - ✓ Phone number of adult is given to driver and the number of the driver is given to the adult
  - ✓ Partition divider will be locked in the open position at all times
  - ✓ All bags, backpacks, etc will be searched and placed in a locked rear storage area.
  - ✓ Itinerary must be supplied by the parent and will not be deviated from
  - ✓ At any time if alcohol, drugs, contraband or unsafe activity is found, a parent will be immediately notified and the charter may be terminated.
